Dear Parents/carers,

I am writing with a special letter regarding Christmas - we have a lot of very exciting activities in school to celebrate the festive season in all its forms. We are looking forward to seeing as many of you as possible at our different events.

Tuesday 6th December: Key Stage 2 (year 3-6) will be having Christmas Lunch and adults are invited. KS2 adults are invited to stay for an afternoon of crafting to help 'Deck the Halls' at Ankermoor. (The deadline for booking your place is Friday 11th November)

Wednesday 7th December: Reception and Key Stage 1 (year 1&2) will be having Christmas Lunch and adults are invited. KS1 and Reception adults are invited to stay for an afternoon of crafting to help 'Deck the Halls' at Ankermoor. (The deadline for booking your place is Friday 11th November)

Monday 12th December: Carol Singing: The whole school will take part in carol singing outside from 2.45pm-3.15pm. We are welcoming adults and siblings to come and join in. Wear something warm! Mrs O'Gara and the School Council will be holding a bake sale during the carol singing. Christmas themed biscuits will be 60p each and a hot drink will be 50p - we will be doing a drink and biscuit special offer of £1. Please bring cash if you would like to purchase some delicious goodies.

Tuesday 13th December: Rock-Steady rock concert. The whole school will enjoy a mini rock concert performed by pupils at Ankermoor. Rock-Steady will be sending invitations to the parents of the children who are currently having lessons with them.

Wednesday 14th December: KEY STAGE ONE and EYFS Nativity. We will be having two performances. The first will be 2.00-3.15pm will ask that children are returned to school at 4.45pm ready for the second performance which is 5-6pm. There will be limited tickets available for each performance, but we will try and accommodate everybody. Tickets will go on sale for £1.50 which will include popcorn and a drink. Ticket sale release date will be confirmed shortly.

Thursday 15th December: KEY STAGE TWO Christmas Showcase. We will be having two performances. The first will be 2.00-3.15pm will ask that children are returned to school at 4.45pm ready for the second performance which is 5-6pm. There will be limited tickets available for each performance, but we will
