Dear Parent/Carer,

I hope you've had a wonderful Bank holiday weekend but managed to stay safe too.

I am sure, that after the Prime Minister's statement last night, you have lots of questions to ask. We have lots of questions that need clarification too.

For the moment, for us in school, there is no change to the guidance. We provide care for those parents whose work is critical to the COVID-19 response and also those children from vulnerable families. The message is still: Stay at home as much as possible.

We have not received any information to support us with a plan to start the phased reopening of some year groups. We expect to receive further guidance and information from the Department for Education shortly, with some clarification.

We will need clear guidance to plan how it is possible to social distance in schools and keep our children, teachers and families safe; how we might start to phase groups of children returning to school and what this might look like.

Please be assured my main priority is to keep us all safe at this difficult time and to limit the risks as much as possible. We know that this situation is extremely worrying and as such, I will aim to write to you again as soon as we have more details.

We are missing your children; take care of them and yourselves. We hope that you and your loved ones are safe and well.

Stay safe and take care,

Mr Simon Russell
